"The muskmelon," said Prof. James "has come to be one of the necessary lux-less is, the object of every melon grower to produce melons of the very highest quality, but there has been much complaint this season, even among the growers themselves, concerning the poor quality of the melons found upon the market. Various causes are given, such as leaf blight, too much rain, a lack of some necessary element in the soil, poor varieties, etc., any one of which would undoubtedly have a tendency to affect the quality of the fruit. The appearance of leaf blight during the growing season always has a tendency to rob the fruit of the necessary amount of nourishment, and cause it to ripen prematurely. This may be prevented in a large degree by spraying the vines with Bordeaux mixture, two or three times, depending upon the amount of rainfall, before the disease makes its appearance. An excessive amoun quality. Another cause for poor quality in melons is found in the fact that many are picked too green. This is especially true when they are shipped long distances. Like California peaches, they must be picked early in order to hold up until they reach their destination, and also like California fruit, they lose very much of that richness of flavor which can only come by ripening on the vines. There is much difference tween varieties grown on the same soil same conditions. This has been very noticeable in our experiments for a series of years on a rather heavy sandy loam which is naturally underdrained. Those varieties giving the best results are the small Emerald Gem, Netted Gem, Osage, Hackensack and Montreal. Paul Jones is a new variety, fruiting for the first time and giv-ing good satisfaction. It is said to be a cross between the Emerald Gem and Osage, Baseball Notes. Cincinnati has bought Barrett from De-Waddell's engagement with Grand Rapids expires Sept. 7, according to the Louisville Commercial. President Hart says one cause of the downfall of Chicago is that tired feeling caused by betting on horse races and losing. A player will get a telegram while on the bench announcing race results, and immediately lose all interest in life. There are eight possibilities in to-day's games at St. Paul and Minneapolis. Five of them are in favor of the Hoosiers-Indian-apolis winning and Minneapolis losing; both winning; both losing; Indianapolis winning and no game at Minneapolis; Minneapoli losing and no game at St. Paul. The unhappy Millers have only three chances. Yesterday's sad story may be repeated— Minneapolis may win and the Hoosiers not play, or the Hoosiers may lose and the Millers not play. It's just lovely-on paper.

SHAMROCK READY FOR HER FIRST SAIL IN AMERICAN WATERS.

Grounded While in Tow Yesterday, and Soundings Later Showed the Yacht Draws Twenty-Four Feet.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29 .- Sir Thomas Lipton's squadron, consisting of the steam tender Nonowantuck, the vapor launch Killowen and the new storage scow, are at anchor off Tompkinsville, Staten island, tonight, all ready for business, which is likely to begin to-morrow, when the Shamrock o'clock to-day an hour's work, perhaps, bending the mainsail, would have made her has been shipped and the halyards rove early in the forenoon, but owing to the uncertain weather, drizzling rain, Captain, Hogarth thought it best not to bend the sails until morning. If the weather is then down the bay for a sall.

In tow of the tug Lawrence, the Shamrock left her pier in Erie basin at 12:30. On her way out, when at a point opposite Boston dry dock No. 1, she grounded on the east side of the channel. A steam dredger was lying in midchannel, at work. There was not room for the yacht to pass between her and the west bank of the channel. She fetched up easily and was pulled off in fifteen minutes, but the incident developed the fact that the Shamrock draws fully twenty-four feet of water, for soundings taken after she was clear showed that depth where she had been. The dredger was obliged to move to allow the yacht to pass to the eastward of her. It is said the Shamrock's present rig to be amplified considerably when she is in actual fighting trim. Those who are depressed by that statement may be consoled by the fact that she will pay penalties in time allowance to the Columbia for every inch of sail she carries above the limit.

Ex-Justice John H. Herig, a saloon keeper at 1012 River avenue, and Mrs. Nana Strothers, wife of A. E. Strothers, 1110 West Ray street, were each fined $10 and costs and sentenced to ten days in the workhouse for maintaining illegal relations. The arrests were upon complaint of Strothers, of whom the defense said, "insanely jealous." Herig and Strothers formerly lived near each other and Strethers claims his wife left him because he complained of Herig's attentions to her, and took up her abode at 515 Blake street, where he has frequently found them together.

Yesterday afternoon Strothers filed suit in the Circuit Court against Herig for allenation of his wife's affections, asking damages in the sum of $5,000. The averment in the complaint is that Herig did on or about the 1st day of October, 1898, maliciously, wrongfully and unlawfully contrived to induce his wife to desert him, which she, at the instance of said Herig, did do about May 1, 1899, since which time they have been unlawfully living together. Idolita, the favorite in the betting, was never in danger of losing the race. He led all the way in the first heat. Coming down the stretch Extasy challenged the leader but broke fifty feet from the wire and lost what looked like a chance for the first honors of the heat. Crystalline broke at the start and with Logan was distanced. In the second heat Extasy broke again, this time at the quarter. Idolita went out to the front and took things easy. There was a hard struggle from the half pole to the wire between Rita E. and Daly's colt, My Trick, for second place. The Montana colt Shamrock anchored near the Erin at 1:30 in only half a length behind Rita. This heat was slow, in 2:141/2. Again, in the third heat, Idolita cut out the pace. Extasy broke at the half but caught her gait and came ready for a sail down the bay, for the gaff | down the stretch neck and neck with Rita E. and this time beat the latter to the wire by a nose in a furious drive. Gracie Onward was a close fourth with the others well up. The time of the third heat was :33/2, 1:061/2, 1:39, 2:14. The 2:20 pace, worth $3,000, was easy for fine it is expected the yacht will be taken | the favorite, Robert Fitzsimmons. In the third heat Arbutaskan challenged Shade On at the last turn for second money.

closed up a gap of twenty lengths on Fitz-simmons and Shade On nosed out second prize. They forced Robert to do this heat in 2:0814, which he did with great ease. The first heat of the third race, the Central stake of $3,000 for 2:12 class trotters, furnished the prettiest race af the meeting Coming into the stretch the field was well bunched with Copeland, the favorite, on the ole. At the last turn Altoka and Humboldt Maid pulled out of the bunch, followed by Aragon K. The three raced down the stretch side by side and finished noses apart. The three remaining heats went to Sir Charles, in slow time. Copeland broke continually and was unable to get inside the money. Dr. Spellman gave the crowd a sensation in the third heat by pulling out of the bunch at the half and setting a clipping pace well into the stretch, where Si Charles headed him and took down th
